Before my move from Philadelphia to Oaklyn with my husband Woody and our 3 children, we were told by our former Pastor and family friend, Rev. Stanley Nodder Sr., to attend the Oaklyn Baptist Church. He and Rev. Williams were close friends.
The first Sunday that we attended OBC we were greeted by Phyllis Pierson. Rev. Nodder had called her and told her to make us feel welcome, and she surely did just that.
The Doe family sat in front of us and when service was over, Bobbi Doe said to me, "You belong up there in the choir." It wasn't long after that that I joined the choir. That was my welcoming experience to the Oaklyn Baptist Church, 60 years ago.
